Introduction

Eklavya Adivasi Bhatkya Vimukta Jati-Jamati Va Magasvargiya Sevabhavi Sanstha's, Ashvin Rural Ayurved College & Hospital was started in the year 2000 at Manchi Hill with vision "आयुर्विद्या सर्वभूतदया" by our Hon. President Shri. Shaligramji Hodgar and his team who were passionate about the Indian culture and wanted to start education as well as facilities of Ayurveda in rural area like Manchi Hill.

The college is approved by Central Council of Indian Medicine, New Delhi and recognized by Maharashtra University of Health Sciences, Nashik. The abiding devotion and experience of many eminent teaching staff in various departments of college is available. The institution has strived to carry forward Indian traditional medical science means Ayurveda in daily practice. In our hospital practitioners provide quality healthcare to society through Ayurveda treatments like Panchakarma, Herbal medicinal and Ksharsutra as mentioned in our Ayurveda Classics. We have well equipped hospital, operation theater and Keralian Panchakarma section is serving for the best treatments in rural area like Manchi Hill. We have UG (B.A.M.S.) course and PG (M.D., M.S.) in the subjects of Kayachikitsa, Rasashastra and B.K, Kaumarbruttya, Streerog-Prasuti Tantra and Shalyatantra. Few of our students achieved a great success in University Merit list in past.

About Conference

Our college conducted National level Seminar on Panchakarma with grand success in year 2005. Now a days, Amavata is one of the most common disorder which is associated with pain. Unfortunately, with modernization and associated pit fails, dietary changes, lack of exercise, genetic factor, physical and mental issues are on the rise. This symposium will focus on discussion about current scenario related to Ayurveda which deals with various modalities for treatment of Amavata. Hence to know the recent perspectives in the management of Amavata and explore principles of Ayurveda in rural area. So that, we are going to organize 2nd National Ayurveda Conference on Amavata i.e. "Ashvin Anveshan- 2018"
