BANARAS HINDU UNIVERSITY founded by Pt. Madan Mohan Malviyaji in 1916 is one of the most prestigious central University in the country. The university has two campus- main campus at Varanasi and Rajiv Gandhi South campus at Barkachha, Mirzapur with 4 Institutes, 16 Faculties, more than 150 Departments, 4 Advanced Centers and 4 Inter Disciplinary Schools. Pt. Madan Mohan Malviyaji himself was believer of traditional system of medicine and in the year 1922 Ayurveda was established as a unit in Faculty of Oriental Learning & Theology. In 1927, AMS Degree course was started under Faculty of Medicine and Surgery (Ayurveda). In 1963, a Postgraduate Institute of Indian Medicine was established. In 1971 College of Medical Sciences (which was established in 1960) was merged with Post graduate Institutes of Indian medicine and Institute of Medical Sciences came into existence with joint faculty. In 1978, the joint faculty was divided into Faculty of Medicine and Faculty of Indian Medicine, which was later renamed as Faculty of Ayurveda in the year 1985. In 1999, undergraduate course was restarted as BAMS degree. The university has completed 102 years of its establishment.

ALL INDIA AYURVEDIC SPECIALISTS (PG) ASSOCIATION is a body working all over India and its members are the persons having postgraduate degree in Ayurveda. The association is registered under society registration act of XXI of 1860. Since inception i.e. year 1979 it is working in the favour of post graduate scholars of Ayurveda.
