Major S.D. Singh Ayurvedic Nursing & Pharmacy College

Dear Colleagues,

Major S.D. Singh P.G. Ayurvedic Medical College, is an elite institute, having history of delivering numerous stalwarts to the field of Ayurveda for last twelve years. In continuation of the legacy to promote Ayurveda, the institution is organizing a National Seminar on AN AYURVEDIC APPROACH TO COMBAT SKIN DISORDERS, THEIR CLINICAL PRESENTATION AND TREATMENT.

In today fast life, lack of time to care for health, wrong food habits, changing life style, use of computers and gadgets and raised stress level are contributing to various disorders in society. As the nature of disorders is changing rapidly day by day; the challenges in front of Ayurveda for Skin Disorders and their treatments are changing as well. So to keep in pace with this speed we also have to update ourselves and know the advancements in our Ayurvedic science. So the theme of this conference revolves around " Role of Ayurveda in Skin Disorders".

This conference will help to update our knowledge and to know the real power of Ayurveda to face the challenges of Skin Disorders. In the conference while getting expertise observations and thoughts from the Researchers and experienced Professionals, you might also get some new ideas even from the scholars. In short, it is going to be a MANTHANA: the churning of facts and views; to get the AMRITA i.e. pure knowledge.

The National event provides a stage where you can interact with the resource persons & exchange your opinions with them. Along with this you also get a juncture to present your valuable work & share your knowledge with scholars nationwide

We are waiting eagerly for your visit with friends, spouses at our institute. Kindly send your registrations, research papers, abstracts and articles as early as possible.

With warm Wishes
Yours truly
